

GIFTS AND MEMORIALS

A. Books and other materials shall be accepted on the condition that the library has the authority to make whatever disposition it deems advisable.

B. Gifts of money, real property, and/or stock shall be accepted if conditions attached thereto are acceptable to the Board of Trustees and subject to any applicable laws. Personal property, art objects, portraits, antiques and other objects shall be accepted only upon approval of the Library Trustees.

C. With the exception of special exhibits, the library reserves the right not to accept for deposit materials which are not outright gifts.

D. The Library Director and/or the Board of Trustees are not qualified to evaluate gifts for tax purposes and cannot provide this information to the donors of gifts.
