

DISPOSITION OF MONEY

Monies are collected at the library from fines, photocopying, and donations made to the library, Friends of the Library products such as canvas bags, mums and other items. All cash transactions are to be handled only by paid library staff.

Since the library is as vulnerable as any other business to theft, monies should be deposited into the appropriate accounts on a regular basis.